

BRYAN CLAIMS A VICTORY IN NEBRASKA BY 15,000.

Maryland's Next Governor a Democrat---Republican Vote Cut Down in Both Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 7.—The returns are coming in rapidly, and in almost every precinct they show from fifteen to forty net gains for Fusion. Returns for 51 precincts give Holcomb (Fusion) for Judge of Supreme Court, 5,670, and Reese (Republican), 5,850. This is a net fusion gain of 400. The solution is most favorable to Fusionists, and the Fusion State Committee here is much elated, Chairman Dahlman claiming that if the present uniform gains continue the State has been carried by the Fusion force by 30,000 majority.

Everything points to this result, as the State has voted the heaviest vote in its history.

The Republican managers still claim that they have carried the State, however, by a small majority, and assert that the Fusion county clerks are juggling returns.

The Fusion managers are claiming a landslide, and point out that the first precincts to report as a rule are Republican, because the Fusion forces control mostly the districts removed from easy communication.

The mercury stood at fifty all day, and the sun was shining brightly throughout the State, and the balance before the polls were closed was in favor of the Fusionists.

The Fusionists were carried by the Republicans.

W. J. Bryan throughout his campaign had urged all Fusionists to vote early and thus avoid any possible complications that might deprive them of the vote.

The organization on both sides was most active, and it looks to-night as if as many as 225,000 votes have been polled, 7,000 more than during the Presidential campaign.

In the cities there was a great deal of excitement, and the same was true in most of the counties in the State where local officers were being elected.

Scratching was not confined to one side, but was engaged indiscriminately. On the whole the work was done in an orderly manner, though the utmost vigilance was maintained by both sides.

There are 2,700 voting precincts in Nebraska, 2,600 of which are outside of Omaha and Douglas County.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—Five precincts in the city of Lincoln show a fusion gain of 54.

DEMOCRATS CARRY MARYLAND EASILY.

Republican State Chairman Concedes a Victory for Smith, His Majority Being Estimated at 12,000.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7.—General Thomas J. Shroyer, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, concedes the election of John Walter Smith, Democratic candidate for Governor, and of the Democratic ticket.

Shroyer has not estimated the majority, but election experts fix the figures at 10,000, while State Chairman Vandiver asserts that the State will give a Democratic majority of 12,000, and Baltimore American concedes the election of Smith by from 12,000 to 15,000 majority.

Police Commissioner Edson M. Schryver claims the election of Smith, Democrat, for Governor by 10,000 in the city.

As an example of the way in which the voting was done, it is reported that fifty-two seats were given to the Democrats in Baltimore, and thirty to the Republicans.

Large Reductions in the Vote Which, It is Claimed, Are Due to Party Apathy.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—From all indications the Republican ticket in Pennsylvania is elected by a largely reduced majority.

This is particularly true in the case of Lieutenant-Colonel Barnett, the Republican candidate for State Treasurer, and in L. Mitchell, Republican candidate for Judge of the Superior Court, both of whom are out considerably all through the State in favor of their Democratic opponents.

Extra precautions were taken by the State and by the Independent's and the League in Philadelphia to prevent fraudulent voting.

As J. Ryan, Democratic candidate for Commissioner, was elected over the Republican opponent, Joseph P. Mumford, almost beyond a doubt, in Philadelphia the other side of the State, both State and local, will have about 50,000 majority.

But little interest was manifested in the election in Philadelphia the vote cast was exceedingly light. In some instances there was a falling off of 50 per cent compared with last year.

BAY STATE LOWERS REPUBLICAN VOTE.

Boston, Nov. 7.—The Republican plurality of 85,000 last year in Massachusetts has been cut down to a little less than 70,000—probably 68,000—and the Democrats have carried Boston. In 1889 the city was Republican by nearly 2,000.

W. Murray Crane, Republican, is elected Governor, over Robert Treat Paine, Jr., Democrat. The vote was light everywhere except in the western counties, where Lieutenant-Governor Crane's home is, and where he is extremely popular.

Legislative returns indicate slight Democratic gains. In the last General Court they had sixty-nine members.

A significant result is the one in the Greenfield Senate District, where Parsons, the present Senator, backed the Republican party on the expansion issue and independently. He is beaten by 500 votes.

REPUBLICANS MAKE GAINS IN IOWA.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 7.—Twenty precincts in Iowa reported at 8 o'clock, show net Republican gain of ten to the precinct over 1897, when L. M. Shaw, Rep., Governor, had 30,000 plurality over E. E. White, his present competitor.

His rate of gain in the 2,000 precincts the State will give Shaw 50,000 plurality. It is not likely to hold out this long. All reports show a heavy falling in the vote by both parties, the Democrats suffering the greater loss.

REPUBLICANS WIN IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

Sion Falls, S. D., Nov. 7.—Returns from the State are coming in slowly. Reports thus far received show strong Republican gains. Sion Falls gives the Republican nominees for the State Supreme Court 258 majority, a Republican gain of 135 over McKinley's vote in 1896.

The Republican Supreme Court nominees the State will probably win by from 6,000 to 10,000.

MISSISSIPPI IS 40,000 DEMOCRATIC.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 7.—A. H. Longino, Democrat, is elected Governor by a majority of 40,000. The Populist ticket, headed by R. K. Frewitt, has polled a smaller vote than the same party poll-

DEMOCRATIC SWEEP IN OLD VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—A light vote was cast in Virginia. The Democrats swept an overwhelming majority in the General Assembly. A full house and half the Senate were closed. United States Senator Martin will be re-elected by a big majority.

Republican Gains in Kansas.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 7.—The Republicans elected officers in over seventy of the 100 counties to-day. No interest was manifested except in two judicial districts.

The Fusionists elected two judges and one Republican. Several counties, however, were carried by the Republicans.

MANY POLITICAL LEADERS CAST VOTES RAPIDLY.

Crocker, the Mayor, Depew, Mazet and Daly at the Polls—Barrett Fails.

Richard Crocker was accompanied to the polling place in Park avenue between Seventy-fourth and Seventy-fifth streets, the Sixteenth Election District, by his son Frank. He was dressed completely in black and did not even smile as he nodded to acquaintances about the place. He arrived at 10:22 a. m., and received three minutes when he came out and had a brief talk with the Chairman of the Election Board. He was five minutes arranging his ballot. When it was all over he was asked why he had come to the polls.

"Well," he said, "I never before voted on a Constitutional Amendment, and I wanted some information as to how the ballot was to be marked. I voted 'yes' on every one of them, and I voted the straight Democratic ticket, too."

At this statement there was applause from the crowd. Crocker, who was known as "Spendier Mack," talked a moment with some friends and went away.

Frank Crocker votes quickly. Young Crocker voted quickly and without assistance. He said his brother, Richard, was hurrying from Baltimore to vote.

Justice George C. Barrett, who was named for candidate of Justice of the Supreme Court, was on every ticket except that of the Socialists. He arrived at 10:22 a. m., and received three minutes when he came out and had a brief talk with the Chairman of the Election Board. He was five minutes arranging his ballot. When it was all over he was asked why he had come to the polls.

"Well," he said, "I never before voted on a Constitutional Amendment, and I wanted some information as to how the ballot was to be marked. I voted 'yes' on every one of them, and I voted the straight Democratic ticket, too."

At this statement there was applause from the crowd. Crocker, who was known as "Spendier Mack," talked a moment with some friends and went away.

Frank Crocker votes quickly. Young Crocker voted quickly and without assistance. He said his brother, Richard, was hurrying from Baltimore to vote.

Justice George C. Barrett, who was named for candidate of Justice of the Supreme Court, was on every ticket except that of the Socialists. He arrived at 10:22 a. m., and received three minutes when he came out and had a brief talk with the Chairman of the Election Board. He was five minutes arranging his ballot. When it was all over he was asked why he had come to the polls.

"Well," he said, "I never before voted on a Constitutional Amendment, and I wanted some information as to how the ballot was to be marked. I voted 'yes' on every one of them, and I voted the straight Democratic ticket, too."

At this statement there was applause from the crowd. Crocker, who was known as "Spendier Mack," talked a moment with some friends and went away.

Frank Crocker votes quickly. Young Crocker voted quickly and without assistance. He said his brother, Richard, was hurrying from Baltimore to vote.

Justice George C. Barrett, who was named for candidate of Justice of the Supreme Court, was on every ticket except that of the Socialists. He arrived at 10:22 a. m., and received three minutes when he came out and had a brief talk with the Chairman of the Election Board. He was five minutes arranging his ballot. When it was all over he was asked why he had come to the polls.

"Well," he said, "I never before voted on a Constitutional Amendment, and I wanted some information as to how the ballot was to be marked. I voted 'yes' on every one of them, and I voted the straight Democratic ticket, too."

At this statement there was applause from the crowd. Crocker, who was known as "Spendier Mack," talked a moment with some friends and went away.

Frank Crocker votes quickly. Young Crocker voted quickly and without assistance. He said his brother, Richard, was hurrying from Baltimore to vote.

Justice George C. Barrett, who was named for candidate of Justice of the Supreme Court, was on every ticket except that of the Socialists. He arrived at 10:22 a. m., and received three minutes when he came out and had a brief talk with the Chairman of the Election Board. He was five minutes arranging his ballot. When it was all over he was asked why he had come to the polls.

"Well," he said, "I never before voted on a Constitutional Amendment, and I wanted some information as to how the ballot was to be marked. I voted 'yes' on every one of them, and I voted the straight Democratic ticket, too."

At this statement there was applause from the crowd. Crocker, who was known as "Spendier Mack," talked a moment with some friends and went away.

Frank Crocker votes quickly. Young Crocker voted quickly and without assistance. He said his brother, Richard, was hurrying from Baltimore to vote.

Justice George C. Barrett, who was named for candidate of Justice of the Supreme Court, was on every ticket except that of the Socialists. He arrived at 10:22 a. m., and received three minutes when he came out and had a brief talk with the Chairman of the Election Board. He was five minutes arranging his ballot. When it was all over he was asked why he had come to the polls.

"Well," he said, "I never before voted on a Constitutional Amendment, and I wanted some information as to how the ballot was to be marked. I voted 'yes' on every one of them, and I voted the straight Democratic ticket, too."

At this statement there was applause from the crowd. Crocker, who was known as "Spendier Mack," talked a moment with some friends and went away.

Frank Crocker votes quickly. Young Crocker voted quickly and without assistance. He said his brother, Richard, was hurrying from Baltimore to vote.

Justice George C. Barrett, who was named for candidate of Justice of the Supreme Court, was on every ticket except that of the Socialists. He arrived at 10:22 a. m., and received three minutes when he came out and had a brief talk with the Chairman of the Election Board. He was five minutes arranging his ballot. When it was all over he was asked why he had come to the polls.

"Well," he said, "I never before voted on a Constitutional Amendment, and I wanted some information as to how the ballot was to be marked. I voted 'yes' on every one of them, and I voted the straight Democratic ticket, too."

At this statement there was applause from the crowd. Crocker, who was known as "Spendier Mack," talked a moment with some friends and went away.

Frank Crocker votes quickly. Young Crocker voted quickly and without assistance. He said his brother, Richard, was hurrying from Baltimore to vote.

Justice George C. Barrett, who was named for candidate of Justice of the Supreme Court, was on every ticket except that of the Socialists. He arrived at 10:22 a. m., and received three minutes when he came out and had a brief talk with the Chairman of the Election Board. He was five minutes arranging his ballot. When it was all over he was asked why he had come to the polls.

"Well," he said, "I never before voted on a Constitutional Amendment, and I wanted some information as to how the ballot was to be marked. I voted 'yes' on every one of them, and I voted the straight Democratic ticket, too."

At this statement there was applause from the crowd. Crocker, who was known as "Spendier Mack," talked a moment with some friends and went away.

Frank Crocker votes quickly. Young Crocker voted quickly and without assistance. He said his brother, Richard, was hurrying from Baltimore to vote.

Justice George C. Barrett, who was named for candidate of Justice of the Supreme Court, was on every ticket except that of the Socialists. He arrived at 10:22 a. m., and received three minutes when he came out and had a brief talk with the Chairman of the Election Board. He was five minutes arranging his ballot. When it was all over he was asked why he had come to the polls.

"Well," he said, "I never before voted on a Constitutional Amendment, and I wanted some information as to how the ballot was to be marked. I voted 'yes' on every one of them, and I voted the straight Democratic ticket, too."

At this statement there was applause from the crowd. Crocker, who was known as "Spendier Mack," talked a moment with some friends and went away.

Frank Crocker votes quickly. Young Crocker voted quickly and without assistance. He said his brother, Richard, was hurrying from Baltimore to vote.

Justice George C. Barrett, who was named for candidate of Justice of the Supreme Court, was on every ticket except that of the Socialists. He arrived at 10:22 a. m., and received three minutes when he came out and had a brief talk with the Chairman of the Election Board. He was five minutes arranging his ballot. When it was all over he was asked why he had come to the polls.

"Well," he said, "I never before voted on a Constitutional Amendment, and I wanted some information as to how the ballot was to be marked. I voted 'yes' on every one of them, and I voted the straight Democratic ticket, too."

At this statement there was applause from the crowd. Crocker, who was known as "Spendier Mack," talked a moment with some friends and went away.

Frank Crocker votes quickly. Young Crocker voted quickly and without assistance. He said his brother, Richard, was hurrying from Baltimore to vote.

Justice George C. Barrett, who was named for candidate of Justice of the Supreme Court, was on every ticket except that of the Socialists. He arrived at 10:22 a. m., and received three minutes when he came out and had a brief talk with the Chairman of the Election Board. He was five minutes arranging his ballot. When it was all over he was asked why he had come to the polls.

"Well," he said, "I never before voted on a Constitutional Amendment, and I wanted some information as to how the ballot was to be marked. I voted 'yes' on every one of them, and I voted the straight Democratic ticket, too."

At this statement there was applause from the crowd. Crocker, who was known as "Spendier Mack," talked a moment with some friends and went away.

Frank Crocker votes quickly. Young Crocker voted quickly and without assistance. He said his brother, Richard, was hurrying from Baltimore to vote.

McCarthy, Mayor Robertson, Postmaster Freese and a score of others.

The whole party took carriages, President and Mrs. McKinley, Dr. Rixey and John C. Duerber occupying one, and the procession moved to the Barber residence in Market street.

Mrs. McKinley was escorted into the house and the President, after tarrying for a few minutes, started for the polling place to vote. With him walked Judge Baldwin, Mr. Freese, Secretary Cortelyou, Judge McCarthy and Henry Harter.

At the polling place in West Fourth street, Mr. McKinley stepped in, shook hands with the judges, took his tickets and went into his booth just like common folk. In about a minute he came out, handed the tickets to the election judge, and the work that he had come 500 miles to do was accomplished.

As he stepped out of the front door a photographer took shot at him. After leaving the election booth President McKinley made a few business calls about town and then walked back to the Barber residence. Later he and Mrs. McKinley were driven to the home of Judge Day and took dinner.

Judge Taft, of Cincinnati, was also a guest at the Day home. One of the first things the President did when he reached Canton was to send a telegram to the Hobart house, expressing regret at the continued illness of Mr. Hobart. The President and his party started at 8:45 p. m. for Washington, their special car being attached to the regular Pennsylvania train.

John Walter Smith, of Maryland. His election as Governor brings the State back into the Democratic column.

Lord Mayor Sees Journal Returns in Voting Place. Mr. Tallon, Astonished, Watched Bulletins in Park Row.

The most astonished man in all New York last night was Lord Mayor Tallon of Dublin, who had come down from Boston especially to see how the metropolis of the United States receives, handles and makes public election returns.

The Lord Mayor was escorted from Boston by John Redmond, and after dining at the Hoffman House the two distinguished Irishmen were taken in charge by Edward O'Flaherty and William Temple Emmett.

They were first escorted to Police Headquarters. Here the elaborate machinery of election returns was explained to them in detail. They were then escorted to crowded Park row, and stopped in front of the Journal's bulletin board. The Lord Mayor was enchanted.

"Do you mean to tell me that those figures that are shown are genuine?" he asked, as message after message was flashed on.

He was assured that every figure put up, whether from Iowa, Ohio, Onondaga County or the First Assembly District, was hot from the wire.

"It is extraordinary," he said. "I am astonished at the ease with which the police handle this mob of excited people. The way the returns are received and posted reflects credit on the police and election authorities and on the newspapers as well. I shall never forget this sight."

The Lord Mayor remained for a long time in front of the Journal bulletin, looking at the biograph pictures and listening to the music of Faneuil Hall Band. He was then shown how the newspaper offices handle the election returns for publication, and left Park row in a condition bordering on a trance.

Professor Atwater. A series of wonderful experiments, conducted by this eminent scientist, proved that alcohol was not only a stimulant to the flagging energies, but had a distinct food value as well. It is the true of alcohol, how much more valuable is

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey made strictly for medicinal uses. It contains not only the stimulating and food qualities found by Professor Atwater, but all the nutritive elements of the malt as well. It is absolutely pure. It is indeed a boon to the weak and suffering.

Choice of 150 handsome Pattern Hats—Paris, London and New York models. Newest effects and most fashionable designs. Black and colors, no two alike. Chic, jaunty Horse Show specials. Positively cannot be duplicated for double our price. Special Bloomingdale price only 7.50

A full assortment of Evening and Street Dress Hats, of Furs, Chinchilla, Mink, Persian Lamb, Black and Colored Grebe; by far the most beautiful, swellest and lowest priced hats in the city; special Bloomingdale price only 12.50 and 15.00

Fine line of Imported Models, worth from $18 to $40; special for Horse Show at prices ranging from 10.00 to 25.00

Specials in Ladies' Neckwear. Plaited Satin Stock Collars, all colors, .25

White Taffeta Stock Collars, latest shape and trimmed with silk, .98

Immense assortment of Fancy Stock Collars, with bows, 1.25 upward.

Taffeta Crush Collars, in all colors, and edged with black velvet, .89

Large line of Lace Revers, 1.98 to 2.98

Black Liberty Silk Collarettes, very full and fluffy, with plaited long ends, 1.49 to 3.25

Immense variety of Oriental and Lierre Lace Scarfs, each, 1.50

Special bargain in Black Brussels Net and Taffeta Silk Ties, 2 yards long by 9 inches wide, finished attractively with applied d sign in silk Renaissance, value 3.00, 1.98

Why Use a Welsbach Light? If you don't get a genuine Welsbach Light, you don't get your money's worth. See that you get it.

The Genuine Gives Trade Satisfaction. In Sealed Box Bearing WELSBACK MARK

ALL DEALERS

Be sure of Genuinest Marbles and cheap imitation brass parts.

Why Use a Welsbach Light? If you don't get a genuine Welsbach Light, you don't get your money's worth. See that you get it.

The Genuine Gives Trade Satisfaction. In Sealed Box Bearing WELSBACK MARK

ALL DEALERS

Be sure of Genuinest Marbles and cheap imitation brass parts.

Why Use a Welsbach Light? If you don't get a genuine Welsbach Light, you don't get your money's worth. See that you get it.

The Genuine Gives Trade Satisfaction. In Sealed Box Bearing WELSBACK MARK

ALL DEALERS

Be sure of Genuinest Marbles and cheap imitation brass parts.

Why Use a Welsbach Light? If you don't get a genuine Welsbach Light, you don't get your money's worth. See that you get it.

The Genuine Gives Trade Satisfaction. In Sealed Box Bearing WELSBACK MARK

ALL DEALERS

Be sure of Genuinest Marbles and cheap imitation brass parts.

Why Use a Welsbach Light? If you don't get a genuine Welsbach Light, you don't get your money's worth. See that you get it.

The Genuine Gives Trade Satisfaction. In Sealed Box Bearing WELSBACK MARK

ALL DEALERS

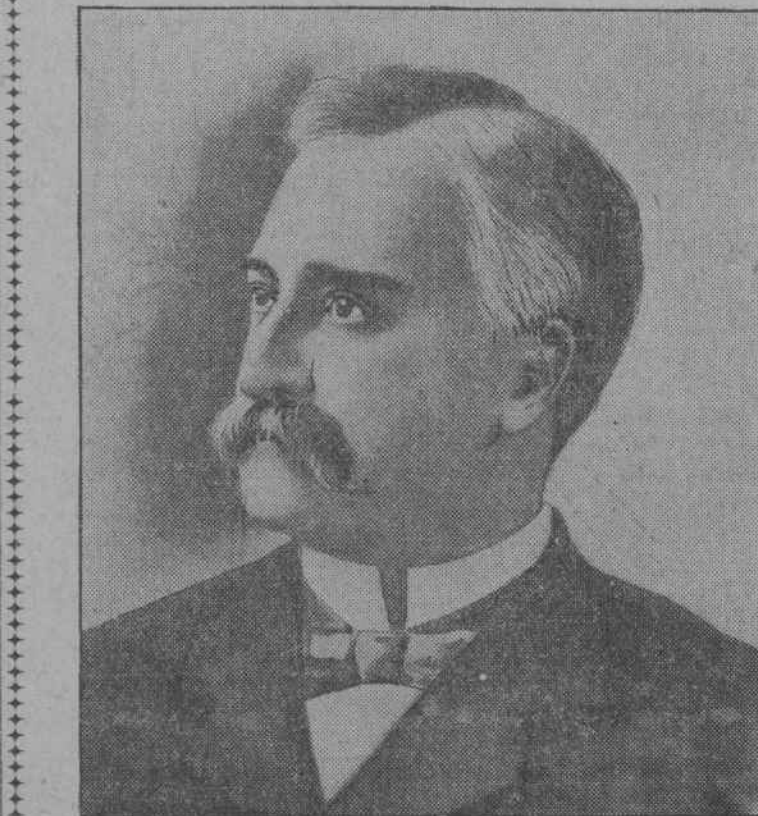

Be sure of Genuinest Marbles and cheap imitation brass parts.

Why Use a Welsbach Light? If you don't get a genuine Welsbach Light, you don't get your money's worth. See that you get it.

The Genuine Gives Trade Satisfaction. In Sealed Box Bearing WELSBACK MARK

ALL DEALERS

Be sure of Genuinest Marbles and cheap imitation brass parts.

John Walter Smith, of Maryland. His election as Governor brings the State back into the Democratic column.

Lord Mayor Sees Journal Returns in Voting Place. Mr. Tallon, Astonished, Watched Bulletins in Park Row.

The most astonished man in all New York last night was Lord Mayor Tallon of Dublin, who had come down from Boston especially to see how the metropolis of the United States receives, handles and makes public election returns.

The Lord Mayor was escorted from Boston by John Redmond, and after dining at the Hoffman House the two distinguished Irishmen were taken in charge by Edward O'Flaherty and William Temple Emmett.

They were first escorted to Police Headquarters. Here the elaborate machinery of election returns was explained to them in detail. They were then escorted to crowded Park row, and stopped in front of the Journal's bulletin board. The Lord Mayor was enchanted.

"Do you mean to tell me that those figures that are shown are genuine?" he asked, as message after message was flashed on.

He was assured that every figure put up, whether from Iowa, Ohio, Onondaga County or the First Assembly District, was hot from the wire.

"It is extraordinary," he said. "I am astonished at the ease with which the police handle this mob of excited people. The way the returns are received and posted reflects credit on the police and election authorities and on the newspapers as well. I shall never forget this sight."

The Lord Mayor remained for a long time in front of the Journal bulletin, looking at the biograph pictures and listening to the music of Faneuil Hall Band. He was then shown how the newspaper offices handle the election returns for publication, and left Park row in a condition bordering on a trance.

Professor Atwater. A series of wonderful experiments, conducted by this eminent scientist, proved that alcohol was not only a stimulant to the flagging energies, but had a distinct food value as well. It is the true of alcohol, how much more valuable is

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey made strictly for medicinal uses. It contains not only the stimulating and food qualities found by Professor Atwater, but all the nutritive elements of the malt as well. It is absolutely pure. It is indeed a boon to the weak and suffering.

Choice of 150 handsome Pattern Hats—Paris, London and New York models. Newest effects and most fashionable designs. Black and colors, no two alike. Chic, jaunty Horse Show specials. Positively cannot be duplicated for double our price. Special Bloomingdale price only 7.50

A full assortment of Evening and Street Dress Hats, of Furs, Chinchilla, Mink, Persian Lamb, Black and Colored Grebe; by far the most beautiful, swellest and lowest priced hats in the city; special Bloomingdale price only 12.50 and 15.00

Fine line of Imported Models, worth from $18 to $40; special for Horse Show at prices ranging from 10.00 to 25.00

Specials in Ladies' Neckwear. Plaited Satin Stock Collars, all colors, .25

White Taffeta Stock Collars, latest shape and trimmed with silk, .98

Immense assortment of Fancy Stock Collars, with bows, 1.25 upward.

Taffeta Crush Collars, in all colors, and edged with black velvet, .89

Large line of Lace Revers, 1.98 to 2.98

Black Liberty Silk Collarettes, very full and fluffy, with plaited long ends, 1.49 to 3.25

Immense variety of Oriental and Lierre Lace Scarfs, each, 1.50

Special bargain in Black Brussels Net and Taffeta Silk Ties, 2 yards long by 9 inches wide, finished attractively with applied d sign in silk Renaissance, value 3.00, 1.98

Why Use a Welsbach Light? If you don't get a genuine Welsbach Light, you don't get your money's worth. See that you get it.

The Genuine Gives Trade Satisfaction. In Sealed Box Bearing WELSBACK MARK

ALL DEALERS

Be sure of Genuinest Marbles and cheap imitation brass parts.

Why Use a Welsbach Light? If you don't get a genuine Welsbach Light, you don't get your money's worth. See that you get it.

The Genuine Gives Trade Satisfaction. In Sealed Box Bearing WELSBACK MARK

ALL DEALERS

Be sure of Genuinest Marbles and cheap imitation brass parts.

Why Use a Welsbach Light? If you don't get a genuine Welsbach Light, you don't get your money's worth. See that you get it.

The Genuine Gives Trade Satisfaction. In Sealed Box Bearing WELSBACK MARK

ALL DEALERS

Be sure of Genuinest Marbles and cheap imitation brass parts.

Why Use a Welsbach Light? If you don't get a genuine Welsbach Light, you don't get your money's worth. See that you get it.

The Genuine Gives Trade Satisfaction. In Sealed Box Bearing WELSBACK MARK

ALL DEALERS

Be sure of Genuinest Marbles and cheap imitation brass parts.

Why Use a Welsbach Light? If you don't get a genuine Welsbach Light